

A photograph of a prison interior. In the center, a fire is burning brightly in a cell, with flames and smoke visible. The scene is viewed through the metal bars of a cell block. The lighting is dim, with the fire providing the primary light source. The overall atmosphere is one of chaos and destruction.

PRISONS ARE FOR BURNING

SUPPORT THE NATIONWIDE
SEPT 9TH PRISON STRIKE
SUPPORTPRISONERRESISTANCE.NET