

KNOCCK TRUMP OUT OF THE PARK

From fighting for our lives in the streets against police terrorism, to queer and trans folks bashing back against fascist attacks, to defending sacred lands and water from infrastructure developments facilitated by state violence and resource colonialism, these moments and movements are the result of ongoing resistance that has been waged for hundreds of years on these lands.

Trump's victory demonstrates how desperate and fearful those who have historically benefited most from this system truly are.

We are ungovernable and we must make it impossible for this system to govern on stolen, occupied land.

From day one, the Trump presidency will be a disaster. We must take to the streets and protest, blockade, disrupt, intervene, walk out, rise up, and make more noise and good trouble than the establishment can bear. We must delegitimize Trump and all he represents. It's time to defend ourselves, our loved ones, and the world that sustains us as if our lives depend on it—because they do.
