

Meet Your Nazi Neighbors: Eric & Angie Meadows

Meet Floyd Eric Meadows and Angela Kay Johnson, your neighbors at 11 Mountain Chase Road SW in Rome, Georgia. Both Eric and Angie are active neo-Nazis affiliated with the National Socialist Movement (NSM), a Hitler-loving white supremacist group. You may also know Angie as Angela Kasahara or Angela Dover, names from previous marriages.

We are concerned by neo-Nazi organizing in your neighborhood, since organizing of this sort often leads to violence against people of color, Jewish people, sexual minorities, and others perceived as enemies.

* Writing about his past on the Stormfront white supremacist website, Eric Meadows claimed: "I have been in the [white power] Movement for over 20 years. Have been both Klan (leader of the Southern Cross Militant Knights) and NS [national socialist/Nazi]."

* While involved with The League of the South - an organization promoting Southern secession and white power - Eric Meadows was placed in charge of "training" for the group due to his military experience. Meadows established a paramilitary unit named "The Indomitables."

* As the leader of "The Indomitables," Meadows posed with weapons and boasted of having drawn blood for his cause. (as seen above)

* Eric Meadows was also a leader of The Anhangar SS M.C. - a neo-Nazi motorcycle club. More recently, Meadows has been photographed wearing patches for the Wrecking Crew Motorcycle Club, a support club for The Warlocks outlaw biker gang. Meadows seems very interested in building links between outlaw bikers and the white supremacist movement.

* Eric Meadows was also at the April 23 white supremacist rally in downtown Rome, in which members of the National Socialist Movement, the Loyal White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Aryan Strikeforce, Aryan Nations, and other racist groups participated.

* In June, Eric Meadows and Angela hosted a National Socialist Movement gathering for the state of Georgia.

The June event was also attended by members of the International Keystone Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. Currently, Eric Meadows is the Georgia leader for the National Socialist Movement.

* Eric Meadows and Angela Johnson had a wedding ceremony in September at the Georgia Peach Oyster Bar, a notorious Klan bar in Draketown. The September event doubled as a meeting for the "Aryan Nationalist Alliance" - a coalition of hardcore racist organizations including the NSM. A swastika was burned in the field outside.

* Angela is also active in the National Socialist Movement. She has announced that she will travel to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania for the National Socialist Movement rally on November 5, 2016 (Eric Meadows will also attend). An online post suggested that those interested in the NSM Women's Division contact "Eva Peiper in Georgia" - "Eva Peiper" is Angela's alias in the white power world.

Because of their neo-Nazi organizing, we believe that Eric and Angie Meadows pose a real danger to Rome residents. Warn your friends and neighbors.
