

FIGHT BACK AGAINST FAR-RIGHT TERROR

BUILD COLLECTIVE SELF-DEFENSE

IN the last weeks and months, the US has been rocked by a wave of anti-Semitic attacks, vandalism and arson against Mosques, white supremacist killings, school shootings and attempted mass murder sprees, a string of bomb threats against various places of worship, and acts of terror against African-American churches. These acts of terror have taken place across the US, and even right here in the Bay Area. Meanwhile, Trump and his staff imply in the press that the various racist attacks are being organized and carried out by Trump's political opposition in an attempt to make him look bad. Trump even went so far as to imply that these acts were being carried out by the victims themselves, a claim that echoed "false flag" sentiments coming from racist Alt-Right websites like Breitbart.

Even in the Bay Area, groups of white nationalists, members of the Alt-Right, and neo-Nazis have been organizing. They have held rallies at UC Berkeley and in San Francisco, under the banner of the group, Identity Evopra. They have put up posters and stickers in a variety of cities. Some have carried out racist attacks and even murders. They have worked within the local Berkeley College Republicans to bring Alt-Right speaker Milo Yiannopoulos to campus, and have also organized a pro-Trump rally on March 4th. On April 15th, they plan to come back to hold another rally in Berkeley, bringing a host of neo-Nazis and Alt-Right white supremacists with them.

But in the bay area, anarchists and antifascists have fought these scum, shut them down, and confronted them at each and every turn, despite being demonized by the police, the media, and liberals for standing up to the growing insurgent Right. We know that to fight the rising tide of fascism and far-Right violence is to come into conflict with the State they seek to strengthen and the systems of domination and exploitation they hope to protect. In doing so, we push to create a combative and fierce anti-fascist and anti-capitalist culture that leaves no room for white supremacy and patriarchy and recognizes the larger systems they seek to uphold and deepen as enemies in themselves. Tear down their posters and stickers. Shut down their rallies. It's time to build collective self-defense against those that would destroy us.

nocara.blackblogs.org - itsgoingdown.org
crimethinc.com - submedia.tv

FIGHT BACK AGAINST FAR-RIGHT TERROR

BUILD COLLECTIVE SELF-DEFENSE

IN the last weeks and months, the US has been rocked by a wave of anti-Semitic attacks, vandalism and arson against Mosques, white supremacist killings, school shootings and attempted mass murder sprees, a string of bomb threats against various places of worship, and acts of terror against African-American churches. These acts of terror have taken place across the US, and even right here in the Bay Area. Meanwhile, Trump and his staff imply in the press that the various racist attacks are being organized and carried out by Trump's political opposition in an attempt to make him look bad. Trump even went so far as to imply that these acts were being carried out by the victims themselves, a claim that echoed "false flag" sentiments coming from racist Alt-Right websites like Breitbart.

Even in the Bay Area, groups of white nationalists, members of the Alt-Right, and neo-Nazis have been organizing. They have held rallies at UC Berkeley and in San Francisco, under the banner of the group, Identity Evopra. They have put up posters and stickers in a variety of cities. Some have carried out racist attacks and even murders. They have worked within the local Berkeley College Republicans to bring Alt-Right speaker Milo Yiannopoulos to campus, and have also organized a pro-Trump rally on March 4th. On April 15th, they plan to come back to hold another rally in Berkeley, bringing a host of neo-Nazis and Alt-Right white supremacists with them.

But in the bay area, anarchists and antifascists have fought these scum, shut them down, and confronted them at each and every turn, despite being demonized by the police, the media, and liberals for standing up to the growing insurgent Right. We know that to fight the rising tide of fascism and far-Right violence is to come into conflict with the State they seek to strengthen and the systems of domination and exploitation they hope to protect. In doing so, we push to create a combative and fierce anti-fascist and anti-capitalist culture that leaves no room for white supremacy and patriarchy and recognizes the larger systems they seek to uphold and deepen as enemies in themselves. Tear down their posters and stickers. Shut down their rallies. It's time to build collective self-defense against those that would destroy us.

nocara.blackblogs.org - itsgoingdown.org
crimethinc.com - submedia.tv